What to expect on the night

This guide has been designed to help explain what you might expect during your visit to Future Cargo. We hope it will help prepare you for your visit, but if you do have any other questions, please email them to askus@appetite.org.uk and we will reply as soon as possible.

We hope you enjoy the show.

Where is it?

The performance will take place at the bottom of the market on High Street in Newcastle-Under-Lyme.

The performance space.

How do I enter?

The entrance will be at the top end of the market, close to Poundland. There will be a blue Appetite gazebo, where a member of the Appetite team will greet you.

The Appetite Gazebo will be near the blue arrow in this picture.

Where do I show my ticket?

The Box Office will be at a desk under the Appetite Gazebo. Here you will be asked to show your ticket if you have booked one. You will also be able to buy tickets here on the night.

Where do I collect my headphones?

You will be able to collect your headphones from one of the market stalls on the left as you enter the marketplace. Here you will see some of our Appetite Volunteers dressed in blue who will be happy to help you.

Will there be seating?

Yes, there will be benches for you to sit on. If you need any assistance, please ask a team member to help you.

Where are the toilets?

Toilets can be found inside the Vue Cinema and an accessible toilet is available at the Guildhall (pictured below).

The Show

The show will take place inside a 40-foot lorry.

Performers are dressed head to toe in silver skin-tight suits and brightly coloured wigs. Inside the truck is a conveyor belt that transports the performers as they dance.

You will wear headphones during the performance to listen to the music. The show will last 50 minutes.

After The Show

Please hand your headphones back to the event staff before leaving.

The Appetite Volunteers will guide you to the exits.
