

“Willy and Wally” Easy Read Visual Story

About the Performance “Willy and Wally”

“Willy and Wally” is a theatre performance with songs.

Willy and Wally is an improvised performance. This means that there isn't a plan for the show. Instead Willy and Wally respond to what is happening around them.

Willy and Wally is a funny and silly performance.

However, Willy and Wally is about a serious theme - Climate Change.

Climate change is changes to our weather and the planet that are happening over a long period of time.

Willy and Wally talk about plastic, and the effect rubbish has on our planet.

Willy and Wally talk about the Paris Protocol. This is where powerful people came together and all agreed to try and make changes to slow down the impact of climate change.

The performance starts at the Blue Clock outside of the Potteries Centre.

The performers in Willy and Wally move about a lot. You can follow them.

The performance lasts about 30 minutes.

The performances are relaxed.

You can wear headphones.

You can make noise and clap.

You can come and go during the performance.

During the show you can ask for help.

Lookout for the people wearing this Appetite logo.

The Performers

I am Helen, I play the role of Wally.

Wally wears a yellow hat.

I am Trevor, I play the role of Willy.

Willy wears a grey hat.

Helen and Trevor wear fabulous costumes, they are made up of lots of different colours and plastics.

Performance Breakdown

There is music during the show. Some of this is sung by Willy and Wally, some of the music is played from speakers hidden in their costumes.

Willy and Wally ask people to sing during the show, you can join in and sing if you would like to.

Sometimes Willy and Wally will squirt water during the show.

Willy and Wally play games during the show.

Willy and Wally play a game called 'Endangered Species'.

Endangered species are animals that are at risk of dying out.

During the game they ask people to name endangered animals using the alphabet.

For example B for Black Rhino.

You can join in the game if you would like.

TRIGGER !

Willy and Wally use clappers to make noise during this game.

TRIGGER !

Willy and Wally blow up balloons during the show.

		Then they talk about climate change and the Paris Protocol.
		Trigger ! Then the balloon bursts.
		The End Willy and Wally ends in a different way each performance.
		The performers like it when you clap and make noise.