What to Expect

This is a family show, everyone is welcome.

The show will last 40 minutes.

The themes of the show are fun, surprise, humour and adventure.

This show has British Sign Language as part of the show.

A performer will use British Sign Language on the stage.

This show will be audio described, please ask an appetite access steward for a headset if you would like to hear the audio description.

The show will be outside. Outside the Potteries Museum and Art Gallery, near the Spitfire Gallery.

The show will be performed on a big circular stage, with rigging above it.

There will be limited seating so some people may have to stand to watch the show.

The show will include dance, circus, theatre and story telling.

The performers will be doing acrobatics and climbing up high ladders, they are trained and this is very safe.

Do not climb on or get close to the stage.

You can clap and make noise for the performers during the show and at the end.

The Chicken-Man may throw some rubbish off the stage. You do not need to interact with it.

You can leave at any point during the show. You can also come back any time during the show.
You can make noise and move around during the show.

In the show, you will watch a story about Tommy.

There will also be Tommy's friend Fish, who he will play with.

Tommy will go looking for Fish later in the show.

Tommy will meet a pipe worm and find out what is happening to the river.

Tommy will get into a conflict with Chicken-Man.

Tommy will then meet Algae and they will not get along.

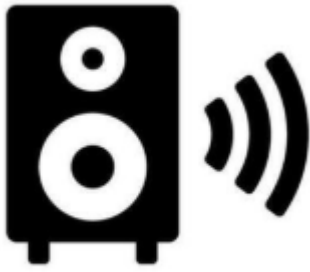

Tommy will face Algae and Chicken-Man again, until he defeats them both.

The show will involve the characters, rolling and tumbling, performing acrobatics and climbing tricks.

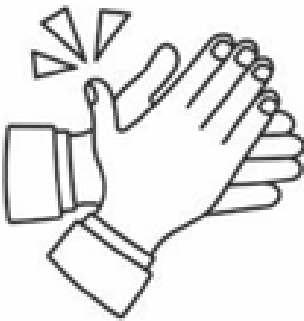

The performers will also be dancing with music.

The performers will sometimes perform tricks with each other.

At the end of the show the performers will bow, this is a good time to clap and make lots of noise.
